DEPARTMENT OF YOGA

Yoga is the most ancient system of physical and mental development. For centuries it has been practiced by yogis, sages and seers in order to attain the highest goal of life.

The Department of Yoga explores and propagates the therapeutic benefits of yoga through academic training and research activities. Kalinga University has been celebrating International Yoga day every year on 21st June. The Department of Yoga aims to prepare trained manpower fully equipped with knowledge and skills for treatment of diseases and to improve the overall health in all manifestations with the help of yoga. The purpose is to impart knowledge of yoga to students in order to enable them to teach yoga to the others in institutions and to the interested public of all age groups. Successful completion of the program will enable the students to teach yoga practices and meditation with a secular and scientific orientation. For the guidance of the students, the Department has well qualified and experienced teachers.

The specific objectives are to:

- provide the necessary knowledge of the theory and practice of yoga
- give students a basic understanding of human anatomy & physiology and yoga texts relevant to the theory and practice of yoga
- promote positive health and spiritual evolution of individuals by the practice of yoga and to make aware of the utility of yoga in disease prevention and promotion of health
- provide the basic understanding of the Indian philosophy, psychology and in-depth knowledge of Yoga therapy relevant to the theory and practice of yoga
